Missionary Church

The Rev. Roy Ramseyer, district superintendent of the Western district of the Missionary Church Assn., will be guest speaker at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd., this Sunday in 11 a.m. services, according to the pastor, the Rev. Roy Whittem.

In 7:30 p.m. services in the evening the youth department will present a Christmas pageant, "The Old Cobler and His Guests."

Stop Sign Studied

A request for a stop sign at the corner of Anza Ave. and 190th St. is under consideration by the city's traffic commission.

The traffic regulation was requested by Mary DeBenedictis on behalf of employees of Chic Lingerie located nearby.

Normandale Playground's Yule Program Opens at Center Tonight

The Community Christmas program of the Normandale Playground will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 12, in the Community Center building at 22400 S. Halldale. Everyone is invited to attend the free program and enjoy the activities of the children as they present the program.

Pre-school children will be the first performers with the entire group playing some Christmas songs, singing and acting, Jack in the Box, Dancing Puppets, and the Ten Little Indians will feature this section.

Older boys and girls will present the "Transfiguration of the Gifts" with Wanda Porter as Mary; Lana Carrick, Christmas Angel; Larry Rabelo, Ragged Child; Rona Cramer, Sturdy Girl; Cindy Mailhot, Girl of the Unselfish Spirit; Patsy Cline, Littlest Child.

A second cast of the following children will present the same play on Dec. 20th for the children of the community. Margie Dugan, Mary; Bettejane Mailhot, Christmas Angel; Teresa Cook, Ragged Child; Linda Knight, Sturdy Girl; Ruthie Cameron, Girl of the Unselfish

Spirit; and Karen Laursen, Littlest Child. The Kings will be Mike Copeland, Donald Copeland, Louis Ramirez, and Rudy Ramirez. Many of the other children will participate as the angels and the choir. The Squirettes will act as the unseen choir assisting the voices of the younger children.

The dance classes of the playground will present two skits "What's in the Box" and "The Little Fir Tree" and follow with their dances to "Jingle Bells," "Toy Maker's Song," "Silvery Bells," and "Winter Wonderland." Community singing and the arrival of Santa Claus will conclude the program.

CPA Group Holds Meet Wednesday

The Long Beach Chapter of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants held its monthly meeting Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, at the Hawaiian restaurant in Long Beach.

The business part of the meeting centered around a tax panel covering such topics as the Technical Amendments Bill of 1957, recent tax trends in decided cases, current litigation covering multiple corporations and business expenses, and 1957 changes in California taxes enacted by the state legislature, as well as current differences between Federal and California income taxes.

The panel consisted of Gordon Stine, CPA, of the firm of Ernst & Ernst in Los Angeles, Warren Sikora, CPA and attorney, from Santa Ana, and Paul Erskine, Long Beach branch manager of the California Franchise Tax Board.

The Long Beach Chapter includes Certified Public Accountants from Long Beach, Orange County communities, Compton, Downey, Torrance, and the Harbor area.

Free Tree Licenses

Boy Scout Troop 703 and the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. were granted free licenses to conduct Christmas Tree sales lots in the city during the next two weeks at Tuesday's city council meeting.

Students Present Tableau For Bill of Rights Week

One hundred and sixty-six years ago next Sunday Virginia ratified the Bill of Rights, which thus became a part of the Constitution of the United States.

This anniversary will be observed under the guidance of the Bill of Rights commemoration committee with the help of thousands of public-spirited citizens and many local and state bar associations.

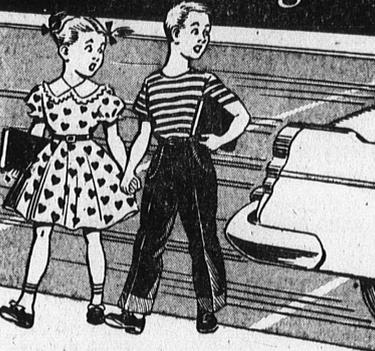

Bill of Rights Week, Dec. 9-15, is so designated by resolution of the board of supervisors, the Los Angeles city council and mayors of Southern California cities.

Students in Tableau Highlight of this year's observance was a dramatic choral presentation made by 40 students from Monrovia-Duarte Union High School before the board of supervisors.

While the chorus sang such songs as "God Bless America," "Paul Revere's Ride," "Where in the World," "This Is My Country," "Give Me Your Tired—Your Poor" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic," other students presented tableaux representing the words of the song.

Posters Exhibited The 10 winning posters of this year's Bill of Rights poster contest for high school students are on display in the rotunda of the Los Angeles City Hall.
